

Burial Assistance Program Guidelines

Purpose and Description

The Koniag Shareholder Settlement Trust administers the Burial Assistance Program. To help defray the cost of funeral expenses and other costs associated with the death of a relative, burial assistance is provided for the families of deceased voting Shareholders who pass away and have a Will on file with Koniag. Koniag will provide up to $1,500 toward the funeral expenses of deceased voting Koniag Shareholders.

Eligibility Criteria

1. Burial Assistance is available for funeral expenses of deceased voting Koniag Shareholders who pass away on or after April 1, 2017.
2. Burial Assistance is provided for the funeral expenses of voting Koniag Shareholders. Voting Koniag Shareholders are defined as: A person who owns Koniag stock who is Alaska Native or a descendant of an Alaska Native.
 - a. The categories of eligible applicants set out in 1 above include (i) an adoptee of an Alaska Native or a descendant of an Alaska Native whose adoption occurred prior to majority and is recognized at law or in equity, and (ii) an adoptee whose adoption occurred after the age of majority, but only if that adoptee is both Alaska Native and a voting Shareholder.
3. The deceased 18 years or older, must have a Will on file with Koniag before date of death. Koniag Stock Will or General Wills qualify. The deceased 17 years or younger, who is Alaska Native or a descendant of an Alaska Native, automatically qualify.
4. Shareholders who legally cannot draft a will may qualify for burial assistance. Specifically:
 - a. Shareholders who pass away as minors and therefore cannot legally draft a will.
 - b. Shareholders who have been incapacitated during the entire time they have owned shares and therefore cannot legally draft a will. (Shareholders who are currently incapacitated but previously were not (while owning shares) but chose not to complete a will, do not qualify for burial assistance).

Application Process

1. Applications will be accepted from the surviving spouse or the relative responsible for making arrangements.
2. Application for burial assistance must be applied for within 6 months of the eligible voting Koniag Shareholder's death.
3. A copy of the eligible Shareholder's death certificate or a letter from the funeral home shall accompany the application for assistance. No funds will be issued until the death certificate or letter is received.
4. A complete application form must be submitted. Incomplete applications will not be processed for payment.
 - Complete the Deceased Shareholder Information section of the form.
 - Complete the Funeral Home section of the form only if you are requesting funds be mailed directly to the funeral home.
 - Complete the Applicant section of the form.
 - Sign and date the form.
5. If you are requesting reimbursement of expenses, you must attach itemized receipts showing costs associated with the final expenses of the deceased voting Shareholder. Expenses eligible for reimbursement in priority order, include:
 - Transportation costs associated with the deceased final resting place.
 - Supplies for preparation of final resting. For example, head stone, casket, wood for casket, cross, labor associated with the construction of a cross or casket, labor or preparation of the final resting place, and clothing for final resting.
 - Food and facility costs for the wake or memorial service.
 - Transportation costs for family members to travel to the community of the final resting place.
6. Receipts are needed for Koniag to pay a funeral home. Upon receipt of the funeral home invoice, funds will be sent directly to the funeral home.
7. All items listed above must be mailed, emailed or delivered in person to:
